

Gifted Guidelines

Gifted students are Special Education students in Florida, as per Florida statute 228.041(18). However, because they do not have a disability, a manifestation determination is not required.

An Education Plan (EP) conference is required when considering Gifted students for alternative placement in order to assure that the EP can be delivered at the proposed site.